

Sept. 16, 2022

Room 423, building 'R'

Program

9:00-9:15	Zoltán Kövecses	Welcome speech
9:15-9:45	Frank Polzenhagen	"How shall we call this virus? Metonymic labelling from a discourse-critical perspective"
9:45-10:15	Monika Pleyer	"Construals of dementia in virtual health communities"
10:15-10:45	Anna Rommel	"Covid-19 - An Unexpected Journey"
10:45-11:15		COFFEE BREAK
11:15-11:45	Dóra Süle	"The conceptualization of eating disorders among recovering anorexics and bulimics"
11:45-12:15	Leonie Woitalla	"Neurodevelopmental disorders in language: Metaphors for ADHD and Autism"
12:15-13:30		LUNCH BREAK
13:30-14:00	Neele Mundt	"Monomodal and multimodal metonymies and metaphors in the linguistic landscape"
14:00-14:30	Alice Bogen	"Conversations with God: metaphorical concepts of life and death in Leonard Cohen's last album 'You Want It Darker'"
14:30-15:00	Milicia Ródic	"Monets and Gucci Hoochies: Millennial Metaphors in Movies that shaped a Generation"
15:00-15:30	Angela Queisser	" Corroding from within - Container Metaphors and Emotional Erosion in Oceans of Slumber Lyrics"
15:30-16:00		COFFEE BREAK
16:00-16:30	Júlia Papp	"The concept of history in US political news"
		"Explaining the Inexplicable – Ticking time bombs or young men that slipped away ? A study on metaphors used to describe school shooters in American newspaper articles from 1966 to 2022."
16:30-17:00	Lilly Brauner	"NATIONALISM IS A GENIE IN A BOTTLE: Particular cases of conceptual metaphor in the discursive construction of the European Union in Britain after the Brexit-Referendum"
17:00-17:30	Alexandra Kern
18:00		DINNER