

Translating Europe

Workshops 2023

21ST CENTURY COMPETENCES AS SEEN BY THE TRANSLATION INDUSTRY AND BY TRAINING INSTITUTIONS

Budapest, 23 March 2023 (14.30 to 19.30)

Eötvös Loránd University, 1088 Budapest, Múzeum körút 4., Building A

Languages: Hungarian and English, with simultaneous interpreting provided.

Registration

Webstreaming in English and Hungarian, with interpreting (passcode: 508387)

14:30 OPENING

Eva SPIEGL (European Commission, DGT)

14:40 KEYNOTE SPEECH

Alexandra KRAUSE (EMT, University of Vienna)

The EMT Competence Framework 2022: another step forward towards the employability of future translators

PRESENTATIONS

15:10

Human in the Translation Loop:

the joint research project of ELTE FTT and DGT

Edina ROBIN (ELTE), Réka ESZENYI (ELTE), Olívia SEIDL-PÉCH (BME), Márta KÓBOR (PTE)

15:40

Gamifying digital skills – an interesting project in DGT

Matej VLAČIHA (European Commission, DGT)

16:10

Questions and answers

ELTE | BTK
BÖLCSÉSZETTUDOMÁNYI KAR

European Commission

16:30 Coffee break

17:00 PANEL DISCUSSION

*21st century competences in translation:
training and practices in the industry*

Moderator: Réka ESZENYI (ELTE)

Participants:

Alexandra KRAUSE (EMT, University of Vienna)

Matej VLAČIHA (DGT)

Tibor VARGA (freelancer)

András BÁLINT (LSP Villámfordítás)

Levente NAGY (Hungarian Office for Translation and Attestation)

Attila GRÓZLI-NAGY (EESC)

Jean NITZKE (University of Agder)

Maarit KOPONEN (University of Eastern Finland)

Enikő BENEDEK (ELTE)

18:00 Reception (until 19:30)

