

APPLY NOW AND BECOME AN EXPERT OF CULTURAL HERITAGE!

For further information please visit our website or contact
the TEMA+ Secretariat

www.mastertema.eu

UNIVERSITAS CAROLINA
PRAGENSIS

UNIVERSITÀ
degli STUDI
di CATANIA

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

World
Heritage
Centre

European Territories
Heritage and Development
Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Degree

Contact us

ELTE BTK Atelier
1088 Budapest
Múzeum krt. 6-8.
Tel/fax: +36 1 485 52 00/5234
E-mail: secretary@mastertema.eu

WELCOME TO TEMA+ !

The 2 year-long (120 ECTS) TEMA+ Erasmus Mundus Master Course proposes the analysis of the growing presence and importance of cultural heritage in a European context by applying a multinational, interdisciplinary approach and critical-analytical interpretation that none of the existing Masters degree in cultural heritage can offer. The Master Course is offered by a consortium of the following universities:

Eötvös Loránd University of Budapest, Hungary
École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales of Paris, France
University of Catania, Italy
Charles University of Prague, Czech Republic
University of Laval of Québec, Canada,

in cooperation with the European Heritage Label (EHL) and different UNESCO organs.

Requirements

To apply for the TEMA+ Erasmus Mundus Master Course students must hold a degree in one or more of the following levels (BA/BSc /180 ECTS/ or MA/MSc/120 ECTS) and disciplines in History, Geography, Philosophy, Anthropology, Ethnography, Sociology, Cultural Studies, Urban Studies, Nationalism Studies, International Relations, Law, Economy, Architecture, Administration or related fields. The selection is based on academic excellence and proficiency in English and in French which are the languages of instruction. The students are required to study at least at two partner universities, with a common core Semester 1 at Eötvös Loránd University (ELTE), and with a specialised mobility track at one of the four partner universities during the following semesters (Semester 2-3-4).

Degrees

The consortium awards TEMA+ graduates with double or multiple degrees (depending on the student's mobility track), all accredited on national level, as well as a diploma supplement, allowing them to enter into the professions in the area of European Heritage in local, regional, national and territorial administration, in urban planning and research institutions, related to heritage and identity.

Tuition fees

The students involved in TEMA+ pay tuition fees, including full medical cover:
3.000 € per year for Programme Country students,
6.000 € per year for Partner Country students,

Application

The application deadline is February 24, 2019 for Erasmus Mundus scholarships, and June 16, 2019 for self-paying students.

Candidates have to upload their documents through the online application system to the TEMA+ website and send the application package with the hard copy to the address of the TEMA+ Secretariat in Budapest before the deadlines. Shortlisted candidates will be phone or Skype interviewed both in English and French by a member of the TEMA+ Pedagogic Council.

Both packages include the same documents. More about the application process and package: www.mastertema.eu.

No fees will be charged for applying to TEMA+.

Erasmus Mundus scholarship

The Erasmus Mundus (Erasmus+) programme offers a scholarship to excellent Programme and Partner Country students that consists of a contribution to the students' participation costs (including the tuition fees, library and laboratory costs, full insurance coverage and any other mandatory costs related to the students' participation in the programme); a contribution to student travel and installation costs; and a monthly subsistence allowance of a 1000€ for the entire duration of the study programme. For other available scholarships and eligibility criteria, please visit the TEMA+ website.