

Dear Students,

Welcome to the Spring semester of 2021/22. Hope you had a successful autumn semester, and you also had time to relax a bit. We also welcome our new exchange and guest students at the Faculty.

We start the new semester with some changes, and also with the hope of returning to offline education from March. Please check our collection of news, announcements, and programme recommendations.

NEWS

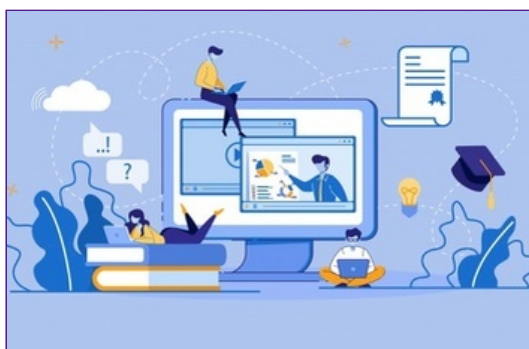

Welcome to our new students

Have a nice and fruitful semester with us. Find our presentations and all useful information on our website.

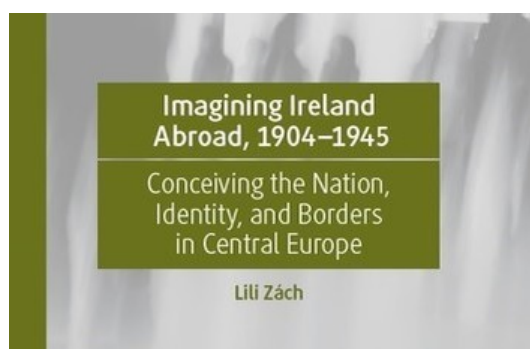

Next lecture of the ELTE goes around the world

On 9 February (Wednesday), 5:00 PM CET, Dr. Melisa Ayşegül Çal gives her presentation about Turkey.

2021/22/2 starts online

The spring semester begins online, but the intention is to return to offline education after 3

Book release of Lili Zách

The Dept. of English Studies at ELTE cordially invites you to attend a book launch and weeks.

roundtable conversation on 10 February.

New Vice-Dean for International Affairs

The Faculty Council chose dr. Orsolya Réthelyi, Head of the Department of Netherlandic Studies, as the new Vice-Dean for International Affairs.

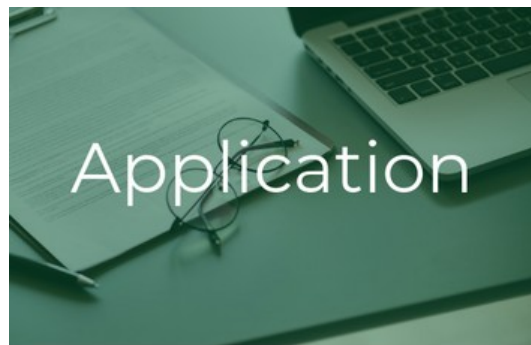

ELTE BTK contribution to research with dogs

Dog brains can detect speech, and show different activity patterns to a familiar and an unfamiliar language, discovered by ELTE researchers.

New COVID restrictions announced

Check the current updates of the COVID situation at the university, and in Hungary.

Application is open for our programmes

From 1st February, you can apply for our preparatory, BA, MA, and PhD programmes.

Keep fit with ELTE BEAC in the spring semester

Free Sport Week, more than 40 sport trainings for credits, semester passes - BEAC is waiting for you.

Among the bests in the QS Rankings

ELTE kept its leading role amongst Hungarian universities, and achieved 26th in the international ranking.

New video of the beauty of winter Budapest

Romanian filmmaker Roxana Beloiu has just released a new video mainly taken by drone, showing the outstanding sights of Budapest in winter.

7 interesting exhibitions this winter

What's on show this winter ranges from Cézanne to children's book illustrations, and from textiles to woodcut graphics.

INTERCULTURAL TRAINING

3 connected training events designed for international students.

Meet other students, share your experience, learn how to cope with stress and difficulties of living abroad.

Workshop 1: 25 /2/2022 (online)

Workshop 2: 25/3/2022

Workshop 3: 29/4/2022

I would like to participate

COACHING

"I am thankful for all the sessions, I personally changed a lot in my communication skills, my strengths and plannings."

"It helps me personally to set clearer goals and how not to lose the track when we have a plan to complete things."

Join our individual or group coaching sessions with our kind coach, Ms Bori Nagy. Coaching can help you

- clarify your blocks
- express your strengths and values
- set up a goal
- find your own ways, solutions
- cope with stressful situations
- develop your time management

I am interested

USEFUL INFORMATION, CALENDAR

Do not forget the most important deadlines of the following period. For the details, visit the Academic calendar on the Faculty website.

- Tuition starts
- Course registration

We wish you a nice and fruitful spring semester. Please take care of yourself and others too.
If you have any feedbacks, concerns, contact us.

Department of International Affairs

This email was sent to <<Email Address>>

why did I get this? unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

Eötvös Loránd University Faculty of Humanities · Budapest · Budapest, Budapest 1088 · Hungary

mailchimp